RUSSO-TURKISH WAR

MORE ABOUT THE ATTACK ON PLEVNA - AFFAIRS AT SCHIPKA PASS--HIGH RUSSIAN OFFICIALS OPPOSE PEACE.

Effects of the Russian Disasters

LONDON, Sept. 20.—The Standard's Bucharest correspondet says: "The Roumanians in their attack on the redoubt before Plevna Tuesday last, lost 300 killed and wounded. A telegram to the Daily News from Adrianople, Wednesday, states the strong hopes of a speedy victory in Schipka Pass are still entertained there.

The Turks by constant fire night and day, prevent the repair of the Russian works. The Russians are withdrawing a part of their force. The Times' correspondent at Bucharest telegraphs: "The Russian officials of high rank here, have declared that although they were opposed to the war in the first place, yet now they would not listen to suggestions for peace. FRANCE,

McMahon's Manifesto---Comments Thereon.

London, Sept. 20.—A Standard cor-respondent at Paris reports President McMahon's manifesto created immense sensation. Bonapartists and clericals applaud it as a declaration of no surrender. The Temps which so far is most outspoken of the republicau papers declares the manifesto unprecedented. The Times Paris correspondent says the peo-ple look upon President McMahon's manifesto as only an electoral artifice designed to frighten timid electors into supporting official candidates and to encourage functionaries to exert a presnals Continued. WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—The signal office reports that the cyclone yesterday in the Eastern Gulf States has remained nearly stationary but is diminishing in intensity with the barometer rising at the centre of the depression, with high winds and heavy rains have attended the storm. Indications not threatening for to-day, however cautionary signals continue at Mobile, St. Marks, Jacksonville, Savannah, Key West, Charleston, Wilmington, Smith-Kitty Hawk, Cape Henry, Cape May and Norfolk.

The Cyclone--Cautionary Sig

Hayes Lost in a Fog of Verbosity or Somewhere Else in Tennessee.

WASHINGTON, Sopt. 20.—The speeches of the Presidential party are highly patriotic but the verbosity which characterizes them excludes them from noon report; the hubbub from Tennessee is so great that it is impossible to say exactly here Hayes is.

NIGHT DISPATCHES.

More Concerning the Meeting of Bismarck and Andrassy. London, Sept. 20.—A Vienna correspondent to the Times, whose information on diplomatic matters is conspicuously accurate and thorough makes the following comment on conference at Salsburg between Bismarck and Andrassy. Its importance ought not to be underrated, not only as regards Germany and Austria but touching the east-ern question itself. The triple alliance about the existence or non-existence of which there has been so much talk had indeed become a woeful anochronism since Russia stepped out of it and took her own line but it must not be forgotten that it had another, perhaps deeper meaning and as regards that happily not only for the parties concerned but for Europe at large it still exists and it may be hoped will be strengthened anew by the Salsburg interview except for the apparatus or a permanent mediator constantly at work. Since the Berlin meeting in 1872, which laid the foundation of the triple alliance to smooth, down the difference which exists between the interests of Austria and Russia, regarding a solution of the eastern question, probably by this time instead of a local struggle, Europe would have found itself in the midst of an European war. BERLIN, Sept. 20.—The meeting of Prince Bismarck and Count Andrassy at Salsburg is to be regarded as a sequel of the recent interview between the Austrian and German Emperors, as merely strengthening views then exchanged between the two sovereigns regarding continuance of understanding between their Imperial Courts, upon means of averting European complica-tions. This result is secured without formal treaty stipulations inasmuch as it represents the complete personal agreement existing between the three Emperors.

Heavy Rains in Alabama.

MONTGOMERY, Sept. 20 .- The Warrior river has risen sixty feet and is still rising rapidly, the entire river country is submerged and the loss of the crops is calamitous. The Alabama is rising slowly at this point. The rain has beaten out an immense quantity of cotton. It has been raining ever since Tuesday.

Death of Senator Bogy.

St. Louis, Sept. 20.—United States Senator Lewis V. Bogy, of Missouri, died at 11 o'clock this morning, he had been afflicted with malarial fever for several months, and lately abcess of the liver was discovered which hastened and penans directly caused his death. The London Times on the Situation.

LONDON, Sept. 20 .- The Times editorially commenting on President Hayes Southern tour says: "In little more than half a year the President has succeeded in beating down a compact mass of prejudices and in allaying a host of conflicting passions. The visi-ble triumph of his policy is now being assured, he has this week begun a journey through the Southern States which is intended to show that the work of pacification is not far from completion. The federal government has no intention of interfering in the local administration of the Southern States. The Southern States have no desire to disturb the great achievements of the civil war which have been embodied in the Constitutional amendments. The removal of the objects of contention makes it easy to re-establish friendly relations between people who respect each other, and the sympathetic meeting of the President and General Hampton is an omen of the coming time when the North and the South will no longer be separated by the lines of division which the civil war had traced."

United States Vessels Quarantined at Cadiz --- Secretary of War Returned.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.-The United States Consul at Cadiz informs the State Department that United States vessels have been required to quarantine from 3 to 7 days on account of their former voyage having been from ports of Cuba or the Gulf of Mexico, causing delay and expense, which the consul suggests can be avoided if the captains of the vessels will apply to the Spanish Consul for a certificate stating that the vessel on her arrival at her home-port, from Cuba or the Gulf of Mexico, underwent the formalities of quarantine. The Secretary of War has returned.

Proceedings of the Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 20 .- In the Grand Lodge the special order was the amendment to change the name of the Grand Lodge from "Grand Lodge of the United States," to "Supreme Lodge I. O. O. F." was taken up. The yeas and nays were called and the amendment lost; yeas 74; nays 61, not a three fourth vote as required by the Consti-

It was considered inexpedient and impracticable on account of the laws of the Spanish Government in relation to secret societies, to take any steps towards granting a charter for a lodge in Havana Cuba.

Loss by the Burning of the Steamers at St. Louis.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 20.—Special dispatches place the loss by the burning of the Steamers at St. Louis at over $300, 000. The Steamer Grand Republic was insured for $200,000 in the Howe, Carroll and Powell agency.

St. Louis, Sept. 20.—The Steamer
Grand Republic was burned to the waters edge and sunk before morning. It is doubtful whether her machinery will be of any value. Cwned by Capt. Thorwegan, valued at $150,000 and insured for $50,000 in about 25 offices. The Carondolet is probably a total loss, was owned by Captain Hicks and three associates and valued at $40,000, insured for $17,000.

ROSSO-TURKISH WAR.

London, Jept. 20.—A Russian official dispatch, dated Gorny Studen, Sept. 19th, says: "Yesterday affairs were quiet everywhere."

The blockade and bombardment of Plevna continue. ST. PETERSBURG, Sept. 20.-The Galos publish s a telegram from Igdyr, Asia Minor, which shows that the Turks on the 18th inst. were cannonading Gen. Tergukassoff's positions there.

Labor Must be Dignified.

(Southern Home.)
The eargerness with which many o the leading lawyers of this State jump at any salaried office, proves conclusively that the legal profession is overstocked in this country. The country, too, has more doctors than it can well support; while there are more aspirants for clerkships and salesmen, than can obtain situations. The war has wrought many changes in the different trades and professions, and people will best educate their children who teach them a trade by which a good and comfortable living can be made. If a man can make a living by any honest calling, he will be respected. Every man is blind in a measure to the qualifications of his boy. He thinks the boy a prodigy, when in fact he has only an ordinary mind.

He thinks his boy is destined to adorn the bar, when from idleness and long waiting for practice, he soon patronizes another bar than the one for which he was educated. Another thinks his boy is destined to be a distinguished physician, and that makes at best but a cipher, (but nothing to sigh for,) in his profession. So it is with educating for a merchant, for if he has no qualifications for that calling, some sharper will soon cheat him out of all he has,

This thing of having the country over stocked with young men who have been educated for professions that are already full, is the most baneful and demoralizing tendency of the age. If you have a farm, make a farmer of your boy. If not, trades are honorable. Why not give him a trade which will make him independent for life?

We see scores of young men daily, who are contracting bad habits; sowing the seeds of vice and frittering away their lives in dissipation. They are willing to work at something, but cannot find an opening where they desire. They are young men gifted with fair talents and possessed of many virtues, but it is scarcely probable that they will make any mark in the world, because they will not likely be afforded the opportunity.—Their lives will prove a failure and it will be due to the false ideas with which they have been raised. Their parents are to blame for this, for they should have taught them that any work is both respectable and honorable.

When we see this state of affairswhen we see young men, the hope of the country, waiting instead of working, we are forced to exclaim that public sentiment is far from being sound upon this vital subject. The press can do much towards giving a healthy and correct tone to public sentiment in this respect Will it do its duty? The State Fair.

[Alamance Gleaner.]
The special premiums were never before so numerous, or so valuable. They come from home people and from different States. Almost daily the Raleigh papers give considerable space to the public acknowledgement by the Secretary of the Society, of these dona-tions from firms, companies and indi-viduals, to be used as premiums. Then too the premium list as prepared by the Society, is, if we may judge from the advance sheets we have seen, quite an improvement upon former lists. Many attract.ons, that can hardly be claimed as agricultural or mechanical it is true. will serve to induce many to attend. Among these may be noted the extraordinarily large number of fast horses that are already or soon will be entered, the military organization of the State, which are to be encamped in the vicinity, and which will be so attractive, especially to the ladies. "The Captain with his whickers took a sly glance at me." Leaving aside the additional attractions, there is another reason, and the main one which will make the comthe main one which will make the com-ing Fair the superior of any of its pre-decessors. Our people are better off. They have been blessed with abundant crops. The toil of the husbandman has been rewarded this year as it seldom is. His orchard and fields have vied with each other in the liberality of their returns for his labor. He feels in better spirits. He is more hopeful. He feels independent of the hard times, and able to incur the expense of going to the fair, and of taking his wife and grown up daughters, and also to give the boys a few dollars that they may go. Our farmers too, with their fine crops, have something to exhibit more than in the years just passed. By the address of the Master of the State Grange, which we published in another column, it will be seen that Thursday of the week is Grangers' day. This will likely draw many who might not otherwise go. These things, with many others, have served to arouse a feeling of interest greater than heretofore felt, and which of the State. More Railroad Trouble--An-other Receiver Asked For. Condensed from the Goldsboro Messenger.) Our friends of the city of Elms are in terrible condition this week, caused by the fact that a writ of quo warranto has been sued out by Col. Humphrey and served upon Maj. Hughes, denying that the latter has been legally elected President of the Atlantic Road, and claiming that Humphrey is the only legal President until his successor shall be duly elected and qualified, and that the Receivership having terminated by the Receivership having terminated by decision of the Supreme Court, Reciever Hughes should turn the management of the Road over to the officials of whom with the following inscription: the Road over to the officials of whom he received it until their successors shall have properly qualified in com-pliance with the charter. We learn also just before going to can but show itself in the fair; in fact it is already showing itself. Everything seems to have worked together to give a stimulus to the agricultural interest press, that an application has been made to Judge Seymour at cnambers, by some Craven county stockholders, asking that a Receiver be appointed, and Maj. Hughes has been notified to show cause why the application should not be granted. The matter was to come up for hearing before Judge Seymour yesterday 11 o'clock. The appointment of a Receiver is asked on the ground that the interest of the Road and stockholders is endangered by the controversy over the management and that the welfare of the Road is further impaired by the combination recently entered into with the W. & W. R. R., the Raleigh & Gaston Road, and the McCready Lines at Norfolk. Col. Humphrey claims that he demanded the road of Maj. Hughes simply as a means of self-protection, that he had no desire of assuming the management of the road any longer than it would be necessary for Maj. Hughes to properly organize his Board of Directors and the election of his successor, which could have been easily accomplished in the course of a faw days. Since the foregoing was put up in type we learn that upon hearing, udge Seymour refused the application to appoint a Receiver. We suppose Maj. Hughes will now recognize his Directory under the provisions of the charter. An Ungracious Act,

[Norfolk Landmark, Sept. 19.] Mr. Hayes himself has made a very good impression on the Southern people but the acts of some of his Cabinet have not been calculated to sustain their chief in seeking public regard. For example, Mr. Key has allowed the Eastern Lunatic Asylum, William and Mary College, and thirteen river postoffices to be cut off in order to save the trifle of $1,500, and this has done more to irritate a large constituency than any event which has happened since the days of Grant.

Something more vexatious than this, however, has occurred in North Carolina; but we hope when the matter is fully discussed that the Administration will correct the wrongs of which complaint is made. The particular occurrence in North Carolina to which we refer is especially vexatious, as will be seen by the statement that the Secretary of War refuses to permit the State authorities to use the vacant barracks at Raleigh to accommodate the Carolina militia at the annual fair, to be held in that city. This is in every way ungraceful and irritat-ing. The land belongs to the State, and the United States has used and occupied it since the surrender. Now, when the buildings are vacant, the Secretary of War refuses to permit Governor Vance to quarter the militia in them. It seems to us that the Administration should promote Agricultural Fairs as much as possible, and especially that the Secretary of War should desire to have a well trained militia in every State. But from some cause Gov. Vance's application has failed, and thus Mr. Hayes loses a great deal of the sympathy of the peo-ple of a great State, who feel that he is responsible for the ungracious act of his Minister.

A good many of the colored people in South Carolina have gone almost crazy over the idea of emigrating to Liberia. They expect to be carried free on government vessels, and many of them have given up labor for the white people, while some have gone so far as to give away their standing crops, being in daily expectation of the coming of the Liberian transports to take them where they can get a living without

Gov. Vance and the Pardoning Power.

[Statesville Landmark.] Some of our Yadkin friends are condemning Gov. Vance for pardoning Heterick. The complaint is that counter petitions, signed by the leading citizens of the county, were not treated with respectful consideration. This, of course, cannot be. Heterick was improperly convicted. He was guilty of murder or nothing. He was convicted of manslaughter. It was a cold blooded murder. Heterick is a Radical, and was peddling Radical whiskey for Radiwas peddling Radical whiskey for Radical votes when he committed the crime. He was driving Sheriff Jones' whiskey wagon from an election ground. Jennings rode up behind the wagon and made some insulting remark, when Heterick shot him, killing him instantly. Jennings was a good citizen but was very obnoxious to Sheriff Jones on account of his extreme Democratic tolling. count of his extreme Democratic politics. It was said and believed, at the time, the murder was committed to gratify Jones. Public sentiment holds. Jones responsible. This is probably the view the jury took, and convisted him of manslaughter. Gov. Vance has doubtless been influenced by like considerations. When it is the reaches influenced by the conventions of the conventions. siderations. When it is thoroughly sift-ed our Yadkin friends will find that he has acted with perfect propriety in the matter. We shall never charge Gov. Vance with abusing the pardoning power upon mere hearsay testimony.

Since the above was put in type, we learn that Heterick's petition was signed by 800 citizens of Yadkin county.

RICHMOND, VA., Sept. 17th, 1877. To the Editor of the News: My DEAR SIR :- I observe, with the greatest pleasure, the interest taken in your State (especially by the News and the Hillsboro' Recorder,) in the matter of fish and game protection and enlarge-ment. So many of our rivers flow into North Carolina that it is every way desirable the two states should, in this behalf, work in perfect harmony. The Fish and Game Protective Associations of Virginia will meet in convention, at Richmond, on the evening of Wednesday of Fair week (October 31st,) and to this meeting we cordially invite all of our friends in North Carolina interested in this important matter. The body will be addressed by Dr. M. G. Ellzey, of the Virginia Agricultural and Me-chanical College, who, as a naturalist, has few superiors anywhere, and by Governor Vance, who has kindly consented to favor us with his aid. Every-

I would announce that I have three cargoes of Coal now on the way to Raleigh, and I am taking orders for early delivery in quantities for winter use, at lower rates, delivered, than it can be had from abroad by the car load at the depot.

THE RED ASH COAL is from the Palmer vein, one of the deepest Red Ash and purest coals mined in Pennsyl vania, and will be sure to please.

The price of coal at the mines has advanced $1.00 per ton within the last month, and is likely to go higher, so that to secure it at present prices orders should be sent early to J. A. JONES, sel4d3m Fayetteville street.

THAT 8728.53.

In the service of the tax-payers and with no other view than the performance of a duty which devolves upon the press, we have, reluctantly it is true and after giving full time, asked for an investigation of the way our city affairs have been managed. We knew we should make some enemies of course. Any man or paper that does his or its duty necessarily must. But we counted on the tax-payers, the business men, the workingmen and in fact the whole people of Raleigh outside of the parties affected and their immediate friends to support us, and we have the satisfaction of knowing that they do. Now we wish to call the attention of the public to the item of $728.53 in the City Collector's account. The duties of the Tax Collector are to collect taxes and pay them over to the Treasurer. His account should be so much taxes received, and so much paid over. A regulation of the last board, we are reliably informed, required that the Tax Collector should make monthly settlements with the Treasurer. But whether that were so, or not, Mr. Williams' term of office expired May 1st, and he should not have been allowed to qualify for a second term until his last year's accounts were settled in full. The plainest business principles required this. The laws of the State require that the Sheriff, who is the County Tax Collector, shall settle in full before being allowed to qualify again, even though the people re-elect him. If Mr. Williams had not used the city funds all h had to do was to pay them over. Tha there was no difficulty in the way shown by the fact that the Treasure Mr. Leo. D. Heartt was entirely squar with the city. Why then was not Mr Williams? By the report the Alderme have published, Mr. Williams on the 1st May, 1877, was in arrears to the tax payers of Raleigh $7,100.92. Deduct ing the claim of $2,005.36 due by " few wealthy men" he was on that day by their report in arrears $5,100.56 He admits he received that much which he had not paid over. Where was it then? If he had not spent it, he certainly would have paid it then and there. It was the people's money and it was the duty of the Aldermen to have required it to be paid in. City scrip was want of money in the Treasury which had been paid by the tax-payers, but which was not there, to pay employees and others. This $7,100.92 in cash in the Treasury when it should have been there, would have saved many a poor man the shave he had often to submit to on the scrip or due-bills issued him by the city. Well, then came the strain to make up. We follow the report published in July by authority of the city. On May 1st, Mr. Williams did make his claim for the $2,005.36, leaving him in arrears $5,095.36. For that sum he remained a defaulter thirty-one days, towit: till June 2, when he managed (how we do not know,) to raise and pay the Treasurer $1,484.65 in cash, and $1,130.76 in scrip and orders, leaving him still in default with the city $2,480.15, till June 15, when he pays $1,144.38 in cash, and $138.37 in commissions, reducing his arrearage to $1,-197.40. Rumors were getting hot; the examining committee had been deemed necessary and appointed. When they reported June 23, Mr. Williams had reduced his deficiency to $728.53. It does not appear by the report then put before the people whether any of the $2,005.36 had been collected or not. If it had, Mr. Williams should have been charged with such collections; otherwise the effect was to allow Mr. Williams a credit of $2,005.36 for uncollected taxes, and then when they were collected, to be allowed to use such amounts as a credit a second time on his $5,095.46.

Well, however, that may be, when the committee reported June 23, Mr. Williams, the Tax Collector of the city of Raleigh, still owed $728.53 of money which he had collected for taxes, by his own showing, and which, at the end of 53 days, he was unable to put where it belonged. Was this defaication or not? We need not ask any bank president or business man in Raleigh whether they would have retained a clerk in a place of especial trust and confidence on that showing.

June note in pencil was added to it (but not by them) as follows: 26th June, cash paid Comm'r of Sink ing Fund, by G. H. Williams, $784.00. On that very day, as appears by t Records of Wake county, Geo. H. Wit liams mortgaged certain property to one of his sureties to enable him to get an $800 note in bank discounted as appears by the face of the mortgage. Deduct 60 day's bank interest and the amount obtained is exactly the $784 paid in. This seems more than a mere co-incidence. We regret any man's troublesbut the tax-payers want their funds handled solely for city purposes. It will not do to say that because Mr. Williams has made up his arrearages that he is now all right. We want men who do not get into arrears. Our excellent Treasurer, Mr. Heartt, did not get into arrears. Mayor Manly showed a clear balance sheet on the 1st of May. Others did the same. No one doubts that Mr. Williams would have done so, if he

There are plenty of men in Raleigh who can fill the place and pay over as much money to the Treasury as they receive and as they receive it, and the tax-payers want such men only, for taxcollectors.

THE TWO REPORTS. The tax-payers are entitled of right always to have a full showing by their officials as to the manner in which their taxes are disbursed. This is a government "of the people, by the people and for the people," and they always desire to know where their money goes. This all will admit. On May the 1st, certain of our city officials were in arrears. An examining committee was appointed and they reported that on June 23rd. the said officials were then still in arrears. On Jnne 26th, one made good his deficiency, since then another has made good his arrears leaving three still behind hand. Now the point we made is this: That an officer who has used public funds for his own purposes ought not to be retained though he may make good his deficiencies. No prudent business man would retain an employee who had so acted and the people are at least entitled to the same protection in the handling of money paid in for taxes as a prudent man would give from the report, and that is that a to his own funds.

On the demand of the News, the Board of Aldermen on Monday night passed a it could be used for paying city expenses resolution to make a further report. The condition of the accounts of the five defaulting officials was such that though a committee had passed on them the 23 June, it took two days before the second report, which appeared yesterday morning, could be gotten ready. We wish to compare some features of the two reports. Here is the first one published by the Board in July:

point was distinctly made that the officials in default had been permitted to "make up" and were then retained. The first report shows the different dates at which the tax-collector paid in. The last report omits dates of payments made by tax-collector though the dates as to Harris' payments are clearly enough set out. This thing of when the tax-collector paid up is material. The committee also say that if all the orders of Mr. Williams had been allowed in May he would have been in arrears only $728.36. They do not assert that he had the orders in May and it appears from the first report that between May 1 and June 26 he paid in only $1,251.02 in orders and $335.16 in scrip and it does not appear that some of those orders had not been taken in during May and June, thus making up his deficiency out of this year. We merely say that this does not appear. Again, he is credited with baving paid cash $1,484.65 June 2 and cash $784, June 26, Does any one suppose if Mr. Williams had had this cash May 1, he would not have paid it then or that it would not certain-

Again the committee say the deficiency was really only $728.36 and that he promptly paid when called on, yet in the same breath they tell us that the collections were so scant that the May pay roll was not paid till August. Do they mean to tell us that, with their employees suffering all that time, they did not request Mr. Williams to hand over the $7,100.92 (or $5,095.56) which he had collected, that with an empty treasury and unpaid employees they suffered "a few wealthy men" to hold back $2,005.36 and the tax-collecter to hold up the $1,484 cash which he only paid June 2nd, and the $784, cash which he paid the 26th of June, till those dates. Such would seem the inference, but we cannot believe they mean to say it. The committee are kind-hearted men, who simply forget that this was public money, which was paid in to pay city employees &c., and that the tax-collector nor any one else had a right to withhold it or divert it to other purposes. One thing is clear large sum which was received by Mr. Williams before May 1st, was not where till between June 2 and June 26, and that too when the May pay roll was unpaid. As to the sum of $470.32 reported due by Chief of Police May 1, we have only to re-publish the following extract from the first report.

"J. W. Lee paid Lee. D. Heartt City Treasurer, $241.26 on the above "Balance" ($470.32), since May 1, being amount collected as per his April Report. He is still due the city $229.06, but has money on hand collected since May 1. He is also charged with a license May 1. He is also charged with a license of $50, which has not been paid. June for Committee. So on June 18, he was still in office. and still in default for money received by him, as per report, for the city before May 1, 1877.

The Committee speak lightly of the courtesy of $2,005.36 extended to "a few wealthy men" of not paying their taxes when the treasury was empty and employees unpaid and intimate that all other tax-payers might have obtained the same courtesy for the asking. If that is the schedule on which our accommodating city government is run the tax-collector will receive this year that request from every tax-payer in Raleigh, "regardless of race, color or previous condition of servitude." As to the expression "Abbing Peter to pay Paul," quoted by the Committee, they must refer to some other publication, for no such expression has appeared in our columns. We hope the result of this investigation will be a benefit to the public in a better administration of our city affairs: for such has been our object in the part we have played in the matter.

THE SOUTHERN UNDERWRI-TERS ASSOCIATION -- ANO-THER EXHIBIT.

On the 19th of January, 1877, Hon. R. W. Best, President of the Southern Underwriters Association, filed with the Secretary of State the statement which we publish below showing the condition of the company over which he presided. The Secretary of State demanded a schedule of the securities of the Southern Underwriters Association, as required by law. The schedule was not produced at the time, nor has it been since; and the annual statement exhibited this morning in these columns, has to this day remained uncertified. In March, about two months after the Secretary of States' demand, the Southern Underwriters Association ceased business operations.

The question here arises why did the President fail to present this schedule? Why did he neglect, decline or refuse to show the location of the mortgages and their amount, and the name of the bonds and their market value, aggregated under the head of assets, as required by the statute? We can conceive of no sufficient answer. It was a clear case of a failure to "pass muster" before a Democratic Secretary of State. The statement herewith presented covers the operations from May 5, 1876, the date of the first annual statement, up to and including December 31st, 1876—a period of eight months. During that time the total net cash income of the company was $44,199.29, and the total expenditures $24,000.20; leaving a clear profit of $20,190.00. And yet, be it said to the everlasting shame of this Association, it has fled for refuge to the okes county; Barrett's Mountain, Nor is this all, three days after the exander county.

This January exhibit places the company in a worse light than ever. Their conduct is utterly indefensible and inexcusable. They should be forced to disgorge their ill-gotten gains, and to apply, if necessary, the last dollar of the $150,000 "paid up eash capital," to the payment of their losses; or, if they haven't the assets represented, and the Association was a sham and a fraud, the majesty of the law should be vindicated. If the officers of the Association were honest in their intentions, as we believe they were, they are making a fatal mistake in remairing silent and sheltering from the scorn of an indignant and robbed public the arch offender in this wretched business.

The Old Rifleman.

BY THE LATE DR. FRANCIS O. TICKNOR, OF

Now bring me out my buckskin suit, My pouch and powder, too; We'll see if seventy-six can shoot As sixteen used to do.

Old Bess! we've kept our barrel bright, Our trigger quick and true, As far, if not as fine a sight, As long ago we drew:

And pick me out a trusty flint!
A real white and blue!
Perhaps 'twill win the other tint
Before the hunt is through!

Give boys your brass percussion caps, Old "shut pan" suits as weh; There's something in the sparks; perhaps There's something in the smell!

We've seen the red coat Briton bleed, The red skin Indian. too; We've never thought to draw a bead On Yankee-Doodle-doo!

But Bessie!—bless your dear old heart!— Those days are mostly done And now we must revive the art Of shooting on the run! If Doodle must be meddling, why

There's only this to do—
Select the black spot in his eye,
And let the daylight through!

And if he doesn't like the way
That Bess presents the view,
He'll, may be, change his mind, and stay
Where the good Doodles do!

NEWS NOTES.

A Moscow journal thinks that the Russians are unfortunate in not knowing what they are fighting for, and so have no spirit.

The appointment of women to keep post offices has had one good effect. Married men do not write so many letters to their girls.

The new York Herald has it now : General John B. Hood, of North Carolina, has nine children, all under eight years old. There are three pairs of N. Y: Herald: Southern Californians lynch a man by riding him on a mustang to a tree where they attach the rope and drive the animal away. And there the man mustang high. Goldwin Smith says :- "It is the fashion to accuse the Americans of unlimited voracity, but they seem really to be about the only people that look at a thing before they swallow it." Miss Long, of Oregon, has married

Mr. Little. She, of course, says, "Love me Little," and he, of course, says, "Love me Long."
"Man wants but little here below Nor wants that little long."

The San Francisco Chronicle says that while this year's yield of grapes in California will not probably be as large as that of last year, owing to the dry season, the quality will be much better, and it predicts the finest crop of raisins produced in the State.

The New York Times says: "A North Carolina paper reports that 15 Northern families have left the vicinity of Chase City, in Mecklenburg County, that State, within a short period, and re-turned to their former homes." Chase Mecklenburg through and you'll find no

Thrift is a French virtue, and the Republicans naturally make the most of the economy of the present form of government. The civil list of Napoleon III., including the grants to the Imperial family, amounted to $5,390,000 annually. The salary of the President of the Republic is $180,000.

Bishop Pratt would condemn all of Brigham Young's wives to perpetual widowhood. "Bless, we pray Thee, the wives of Thy servant who departed May they entertain that truthful, faithful and virtuous integrity to him which is most becoming for them, until they shall embrace him again, to share and rejoice with him in the fulness of the blessings of immortality and eternal life." This was the Bishop's prayer. Yet there are Mormon Samivels who will bear in mind certain uninspired but practical remarks of Mr. Weller.

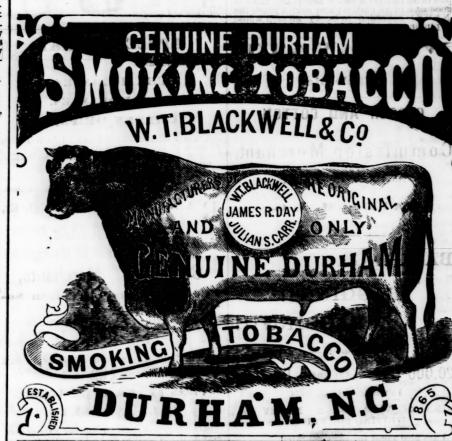

A New Mormon Scandal.

[Baltimore Sun.]
A dispatch from Salt Lake City to the New York Herald says: 'John W.
Young, first counselor to and third son of the late prophet, started for St. George on Friday for the purpose of taking as a polygamous wife Miss Tuella Cobb, sixteen years of age, a stepdaughter of the defunct Brigham. This girl is the granddaughter of Mrs. Augusta L. Cobb, the deceased prophet's concu-bine, who is known in Mormon history as the woman who desired to be sealed to Jesus Christ. Mary Vancott, Brigham's last wife except Ann Eliza, is another Miss Cobb, and is the mother also of one child by the prophet. That John W. Young was engaged to the Cobb girl became known to his wife Libby the day following the prophet's funeral. A big row in young Young's family immediately ensued. John W.'s mother took his part and reprimanded his wife for opposing a servant of the Lord in his bigamous desires. A division of the children was made, and on Thursday last Mrs. Young deserted her husband and returned to the home of her father, Mr. Canfield, an old railroad engineer, living in Philadelphia.

A Historic Town,

Mount Mourne is located on an historic spot. The ground on which a fight occurred between Tarleton and the Whigs is within the corporate limits. Wheeler, in his history, says—"A skirmish took place in the Revolutionary war, on 1st February, 1781, at Alfred D. Kerr's, on the road from Beattie's Ford to Salisbury, between the light horse of Tarleton and the militia, in which several were killed. Seven of the British and twenty of their horses were killed at the first fire." Alfred D Kerr's place is in about 200 yards of Mt, Mourne depot. Mr. Moses A. White lives in Mt. Mourne, is 76 years old, and is now cultivating a farm on which his great grand father, grand father, and father lived and died. Hugh L. White, who was known in his day as the Cato of the United States Senate, was a second cousin of Mr. Moses A. White, and was brought up on what was then a part of this farm, about one and a half miles West of Mt. Mourne. Ephraim Brevard, who drew up the memorable Mecklenburg Declaration of Independence, was born about two miles East of the place. The people of this thriving little town and vicinity are proud of their ancestors, and justly so too.

LOCAL BRIEFS.

Overcoats, shawls and waterproofs are coming "fluently" into requi--Nobody wouldn't do nothing at all most hardly, yesterday, out of which to manufacture local items. -Drummer's license was issued by the Treasurer yesterday, to Sausser, Son & Co., of Philladelphia.

Doc. Page, a darkey of Swift Creek township, was committed to jail yesterday, on a charge of larceny-stealing —Several of our exchanges are asking father Time to touch them lightly. We prefer he should keep his hands off us altogether.

---Professor Carmichael will meet his class to-night at eight o'clock, at the Chapel of the Deaf & Dumb Institute. All members of the class are requested to be present.

-The repeated rains during the last two weeks has seriously interfered with fodder saving, and has also prevented many from picking cotton who would otherwise have been at it.

-We learn that Rev. J. H. Kerfoot, D. D., late of Kentucky, has accepted a call to the Eutaw Place Baptist Church, Baltimore, Md. Dr. Kerfoot is known by reputation in this State as a pulpit orator of the first order.

---Our market sometimes has a good run of beef and sometimes the reverse we have tried some lately that would try the patience, upset the philosophy, strain the teeth and ruin the digestion of any one dependent on it for regular

---The rain which commenced descending about six o'clock Wednesday evening, continued during the night, and up to twelve o'clock yesterday without intermission—sometimes pouring down in torrents. We should not be surprised to hear of much damage to fences and bridges as the result.

-The man, William Staunton, mentioned yesterday morning as being sick in the station house, has been removed to Mrs. Karrer's boarding house, where he is receiving every attention that his condition requires. Mr. E. J. Hardin, of the firm of Hardin & Grimes, and Mr. Hammill, at J. P. Gulley's, procured a mattress and other comforts for him Wednesday nigh, after they learned of his condition.

The Organ Premium,

The organ contributed by the liberal house of Messrs. E. P. Needham & Son, Manufacturers, 143 E. 23rd St. N. Y. has arrived we learn, and will shortly be exhibited to the public.

NEW YORK, Sept, 13th, 1877.

C. B. Denson, Secretary:
DEAR SIR:—We think your course in sending a written letter a very judicious one and we feel fully satisfied with the efforts you have made. Whether the results are all that could be desired by each of us in view of our own special objects we can feel that we have done what we could to obtain them and shall have the satisfaction of knowing that we have done a general good if not a direct personal one. We intend to send five other organs for the general exhibit, please see that they have an appropriate space and tell us the latest date on which it will be safe to ship them to insure their safe arrival and allow us to ship them to your address. We certainly have become very much interested in the work you are doing and shall be pleased to watch its progress and know its result. We cannot see but that you have covered the ground perfectly and at this time we see no room for a suggestion of our Cold weather is near at hand and now is the time to supply yourselves with a heating stove, before the rush of the season. Mr. Brewster has the most complete stock of stoves for either coal or wood, in the city. He is also prepared to refit old stoves, set heaters or anything in this line. A full supply of cook stoves, heaters, portable and stationary ranges always on hand.

Hon. Josiah Turner

Will lecture to-night at Metropolitan Hall, on Rings, Strikes, and the Southern Underwriters' Association; postponed from last night on account of Sol. Donations to the N. C, Agricul-tural Society for the Prem-ium List of the next State (Acknowledged by C. B. Denson, Supt. fo Ex. Committee) Six cans peaches, $1.50; six cans pears, $1.50; six cans orange marma.

lade, $3.00; one gallon jar pickles, 50 cents; one can six pounds corn beef $1.50; four bottles table sauce, $4.00; one box olive soap, $5.00; two bottles imperial wine, $1.50; the whole contributed by Jacob Higgs, Esq., one of our most courteous and energetic merchants of Fayetteville street, Raleigh. Mr. Higgs informs us that he will make a brilliant display of attractive goods in his line at the Fair. We are glad to record these evidences of interest by our business firms. It is not that it is needful to fill up, on the contrary there is a great demand for space this year, but we think it right and highly important to the business interests of this community that her solid men should come forward to exhibit to the vast crowd of strangers something of the value of the stock they have now in Raleigh. Five barrels Bradley's Eagle A, Super Phosphate, $25.00, given by W. L. Bradley, President, Bradley's Fertilizer Companies of Charleston, S. C. and Boston, Massrchusetts, through Messrs. Cooke & Wainwright, Grocers and Commission Merchants. This firm has commenced business very recently, but its members have been long connected with our trade in other houses. They begin their new career by a creditable act of enterprise. The premium above named will be offered in the supplementary list for the best pair matched hor-

One box 100 "Zeb Vance" cigars $15, given by Messrs. J. M. Mendel & Co. Charlotte, N. C. manufacturers. These gentlemen won the diploma at the last Fair. They are preparing a handsome exhibit and will contend bravely with our Virginia friends.

Farmville Insurance and Bank ing Company. This Company which has been doing a very large business in the eastern por-tion of North Carolina, is having some hard things said of it by persons who have taken fire policies in it, in regard to failure to pay its losses promptly. Of the four risks at Enfield they have not paid a single one. A gentleman who suffered heavily by the fire in Enfield last Spring, had his houses insured in the above Company, and has had to resort to legal means to obtain his insurance. He showed us yesterday estimates made by experienced carpenters of the value of the buildings destroyed, which showed that his insurance was within the limits usually allowed on risks. Yet the Company, it seems, raised difficulties on the subject of value and refused to pay. Yesterday Mr. P. B. Key, the holder of the policies alluded to, had the deposits of the Farn ville Insurrance and Banking Company in the State Treasury, attached to secure the payment of his loss. Mr. John Gatling, Mr. Key's Attorney, is conducting his claim against the Company, and has no doubt of recovering the full amount. The main difficulty seems to be that the Company had estimates of the burnt buildings made by ignorant ne-gro mechanics and desired to settle by these estimates, instead of by the sworn estimates of skilled master work-

We make these statements by request, not knowing anything of our own knowledge, of the merits of this particular case. If there be anything wrong about the company in its dealings with its policy holders, it ought to be known. If any Agent or employee of the Company is making difficulty the Company should be made aware of the fact. No Company can long sustain itself before the public by any other than honorable, straight forward dealing, and prompt payment of its losses.

Hans Breitman Gife a Barty, Where Ish Dat Barty Now,"

So ran the lines of the jolly Dutch Troopers song, lines which must be familiar to many of our readers.

They forcibly recur to us in this connection. On May 5, 1876, Mr. Armistead Jones, President of the Southern Underwriters Association, made an affidavit that his Company possessed $152,379.12 of assets at market value, consisting of $70,000 in U. S. Bonds. $19,000 in N. C. R. R. Bonds, $33,000 in good mortgages, $7,729 cash on hand and in Banks, and owed nothing for dividends, losses, or to banks or others. About a month later W. H. Howerton Secretary of State made and published a certificate that he had examined the assets of the Company and that the above statement was correct.

On the 19th of January, 1877, R. W. Best, who had then become President of the Association filed his statement in the Secretary of State's office that the assets of the Company were then $168,-000, that its receipts had been $44,000 in and its expenses about $24,000.

Along in March the Company ceased business without giving notice and re-fused to pay its losses or to return premiums to those whose policies were un-expired, and has refused to explain where its assets have gone and has opposed all investigation of its affairs-

State Fair Items.

Col. Wharton J. Green has signified his intention of exhibiting at the State Fair his fine stallion, said to be one of the finest horses in the State.

The Chamber of Commerce and other public bodies of Richmond, Va., have formally accepted invitations to visit the Fair. They will come in a special train.

Mr. Cherry of Pitt will have his fine Deven Bull at the Fair-the largest aud finest ever exhibited in the State. The rents at the Fair Grounds amount to $965 instead of $950, as reported Wednesday. Last year they amounted to $205—indicating largely increased interest and expectation concerning the Fair this year over last.

Harry Leslie, the celebrated tight rope walker of Niagara, has written the Secretary, Capt. Denson, requesting the privilege of giving an exhibition of his mid-air performance during the Fair, within the grounds.

Personal. Sol. Smith Russell and Mrs. Sol. Smith Russell and eight members of their dramatic troupe were registered at the Yarborough last night.

Messrs. M. T. Leach, A. Creech, B. L. Bingham, and D. S. Waitt, returned last night from their northern trip, where they have been to lay in winter stocks.

Sol. Smith Russell. Sol. Smith Russell and his excellent company were greeted with a full house last night, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather. The parts were all well rendered; Mr. Russell's character deliniations being of course the most enjoyable feature. Mr. Lumbard's basso was admirable; while Misses Wiley and Holbrook elicited warm applause. Sol Smith Russell will always receive a cordial welcome from the citizens of Raleigh.

Callender's Georgia Minstrels. This celebrated company of minstrels who made such a fine impression and drew such a large audience here four years ago are booked for an entertainment at Tucker Hall on Friday 28th inst. The entertainments of this company are spoken of in the most favorable terms by the New York Herald New York Graphic, Boston Advertiser, Boston Herald and other papers where they have appeared. They will doubtless draw a large house here.

L. R. Wyatt, (Successor to Rand & Wyatt,) will continue the wholesale and retail groce ry and cotton business at the old stand where he will be pleased to serve cus-tomers and friends of the late firm with First Class Flour, Bacon, Lard, Sugar, Coffe, Molasses, Salt, Bagging and Ties &c., at prices to suit. Consignments of Cotton, Flour &c., solicited for storage and sale which will have prompt attention in sales and returns.

More Prolific Corn.

Messrs. W. H. & R. S. Tucker has stalk of corn on exhibition at the Agricultural Department, raised on their farm near this city, which has on it eleven fully developed ears. This beats Mr. Beacham's, though his was hard to beat. Either will do to brag or bet on.

Messrs. Wynne & Co., have just received at the hands of Joel Fesler a fine car load of horses and mules from Kentucky. The horses are nice for topys saddlers. The mules are well and broke and of good size. Sept. 15th, 1w.

Coming to the Fair. It is almost certain that every white uniformed company of State Guards in the State will be at the approaching Fair. Capt. Flanner's Wilmington company of Light Artillery, a Cadets of the Bingham School will also be present. The military will form a very attractive feature of the Fair.

Brewster has the best display of stoves Brewster has the best display of stoves and house furnishing goods in the city —there is nothing you can call for in the house furnishing line he does not keep. To the Editor of the News : SIR: I just write to say that on tomorrow I will hand you a communication for publication in regard to myself and the position in which I now stand before the citizens of Raleigh. I propose to ventillate the city government from March 1, 1876; I propose to acknowledge my faults and misdoings; I propose to tell the finance committee some things that they suppose is not known outside of their little private meetings. I shall have to strike some dear friends pretty hard, but I am forced to do it. I shall only state facts and nan e witnesses. Please publish the above so that the public may see that I intend to notice the attack on me by the statement of the finance committee and the News. Respectfully, JOSEPH A. HARRIS.
